Helping children live emotionally healthy lives

Providing Children & Their Families with a Circle of Support

LUCY DANIELS CENTER is the Triangle's largest nonprofit provider of children's mental health support and services. We help more than 600 children every year.

Our programs offer individualized treatment for each child, a well-rounded academic program through Lucy Daniels School (Pre-K–5th grade), and community outreach programs that serve families across the Triangle.

Your support allows us to encircle each family with comprehensive services that help children grow into socially and emotionally healthy members of our community.
